- Priority shall be given to films that have not premiered in Santiago, Chile prior to their exhibition in the Festival.
- All the films in the competition categories must be directed solely by women filmmakers, this includes codirection.
- All films that were not originally filmed in Spanish, must contain adequate subtitles in English or Spanish in NTSC standard for the selection process. Should the film be selected, the applicant must provide a film version with Spanish subtitles.
- Films will only be accepted electronically in H.264 format, with an .mp4 or .mov extension, spoken or subtitled in Spanish or English for the pre-selection process. You may submit your film for the pre-selection process through, Festhome, Vimeo, Dropbox, YouTube, or WeTransfer. The applicant shall be responsible for any costs related to submission of the film or related material.
- No submitted material shall be returned.
- Films participating in any of the competition categories shall not receive any screening fees for their exhibition in the festival.

5. GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR SELECTION AND PARTICIPATION:

- The films submitted for participation in the competition in its various categories shall undergo a selection process that shall be curated by a team comprised of the festival organizers and programmers.
- The selection committee's decision is final and not subject to appeal.

- The filmmakers and/or producers of the films selected for participation in the competition, agree to include the phrase "Official FEMCINE Women's Film Festival Selection" or "Official FEMCINE Selection" on all their publicity and press material, along with the Festival logo.
- The films selected for participation in the competition may be used for educational purposes or as part of the touring programs organized in conjunction with FEMCINE, all of these activities are free and not-for profit. The Festival in turn agrees to inform the filmmakers of said activities ahead of time.
- The Festival may use stills and clips of the films selected for participation in the competition for promotional purposes on all FEMCINE publications, festival trailers, press coverage, and preview screenings. The Festival will in no way benefit monetarily from these instances and all film rights shall remain in the hands of the filmmakers themselves.
- Once a film has been selected for the competition, it may not be removed from the FEMCINE program.
- All complementary material (trailer, stills, director photos, and bio) must be received in our offices by March 7th, 2024, at the latest. Failure to do so may preclude inclusion in the catalog.
- All of the films selected for competition, with the appropriate Spanish subtitles if not originally filmed in Spanish, must be received in our offices by March 15, 2024.

6. JURY:

- Will be comprised of national and foreign personalities from audiovisual, arts, film industry, and cultural fields, who will be selected based on their curriculum and invited by the Festival to participate.
